

Postdoctoral Fellowship: iCASD

MMI's Integrated Center for Autism Spectrum Disorders (iCASD) offers diagnostic and treatment services for children with autism. The postdoctoral fellowship offers three different track options through iCASD's Autism Diagnostic Clinic (ADC) and several ABA clinics.

Track 1:	Autism Evaluation	Supervisors
Autism Diagnostic Clinic (ADC)	Comprehensive autism psychological evaluations	Dr. Patricia Zemantic Dr. Chris Courson
Track 2:	Autism Treatment	Supervisors
Autism Care for Toddlers Clinic (ACT)	ABA therapy for toddlers	Dr. Regina Carroll Dr. Mary Halbur Dr. Amber Paden
Early Intervention (EI)	ABA therapy for young children	Dr. Nicole Rodriguez Dr. Catalina Rey
BRIDGE	Dyad and group-based ABA therapy	Dr. Sarah Connolly Dr. Juliana Oliveira
Adolescent and Young Adult	ABA therapy for adolescents	Dr. Todd Owen
Clinical Research	Applied research in ABA	Dr. Alice Shillingsburg
Track 3:	Autism Evaluation/Treatment	Supervisor
Autism Diagnostic Clinic (ADC) & the BRIDGE Program	Split between both autism evaluation (ADC) and group-based ABA treatment (BRIDGE)	Dr. Sarah Connolly

To apply to one of the iCASD fellowships, scan the below QR code to view our job listings and complete the application listed as Fellow.

Please include your CV and cover letter with the tracks in which you are interested.

iCASD Fellowship Training Coordinators:

Sarah Connolly, PhD, BCBA-D, ABPP

sconnolly@unmc.edu

Chris Courson, PhD

ccouson@unmc.edu