

EDITORIAL UPDATE & CALL FOR GENERAL SUBMISSIONS

Division 16 of the American Psychological Association publishes The School Psychologist as a service to the membership. Three PDF issues are published annually. The purpose of TSP is to provide a vehicle for the rapid dissemination of news and recent advances in practice, policy, and research in the field of school psychology.

In light of this mission, the TSP editorial team has worked hard over the last year to streamline our internal procedures and expedite the time to publication for our authors. We have instituted a permanent email address that will stay with the newsletter; you can now reach out to D16TSP@gmail.com at any time with questions about ongoing submissions or ideas for future articles.

We are actively seeking manuscript submissions with a strong applied theme, or empirical pieces conducted in school settings and that have a strong research-to-practice linkage. Non-empirical pieces with a strong applied element will also be reviewed for potential publication. Briefer (up to 5 pages) applied articles, test reviews, and book reviews will also be considered. We particularly encourage you to submit articles that are timely to the current practice needs of school psychologists, such as collaborative efforts to support teachers and school staff, calls and actions for advocacy within schools, or the influence of technology on school psychology practice.

All submissions should be double-spaced in Times New Roman 12-point font and emailed to the Editor. Manuscripts should follow APA format, identify organizational affiliations for all authors on the title page, and provide contact information for the corresponding author. Authors submitting materials to The School Psychologist do so with the understanding that the copyright of published material shall be assigned exclusively to APA Division 16.
