

Money, Money, Money!:

How to be Competitive in the Grant World

Thursday, March 17, 2016 @ 6-7 p.m. EST (5-6 p.m. CST/3-4 p.m. Pacific)

Hosted by the 2014-2016 CNPAAIMI Leadership Development Fellows

Given the current funding climate, investigators seeking funding to conduct psychosocial research face the challenge of preparing high quality proposals that demonstrate the capacity to conduct innovative research that addresses real world problems. This task may be particularly challenging for scholars of color who face unique challenges in the grant application process. This webinar will provide descriptive information about funding mechanisms and tangible strategies for being competitive in the grant world as a person of color.
